GEORGIA FRONTIERE
President

The offseason of 1982 was an active and positive time for Rams owner Georgia Frontiere. Not only did she support her coach, Ray Malavasi, but she also helped him by trading for a star quarterback in the person of Bert Jones, formerly of the Baltimore Colts.

This was just one move of a busy offseason in which she worked diligently to restore the winning tradition to her Rams, who had been to the playoffs eight straight seasons until last year.

Selected as a "Headliner of the Year" last spring by the Greater Los Angeles Press Club, Georgia Frontiere's activities the last four years have included all that goes into the running of a professional football franchise.

Beginning with her first season, 1979, the Rams continued to prosper and win football games. That year the team went all the way to the Super Bowl and the following season it won 11 and lost five to win a spot in the NFC playoffs for the eighth straight time.

In addition to running her football team, Mrs. Frontiere has found time to involve herself in numerous civic, community and charitable activities. She has been active in local youth programs, serving on the board of directors of the Los Angeles Boys and Girls Club, the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild, the Los Angeles Blind Youth Foundation, honorary vice-chairman of the Good Scout Luncheon in Orange County and co-chairman of the Boy Scout Sports Dinner in Los Angeles.

DON KLOSTERMAN
Assistant to the President/Consultant

A key advisor to owner Georgia Frontiere, Don Klosterman enters his 11th year with the Rams after coming to the club from Baltimore with the late Carroll Rosenbloom in 1972.

Born in Lemars, Iowa, Don grew up in Compton, Ca., and attended Loyola University. "The Duke of Del Rey" led the Lions through their most successful athletic era as he set seven NCAA passing records.

He played pro ball with Cleveland, the Dallas Texans, the Rams and the Calgary Stampeeders before a skiing accident ended his career in 1957.

Don began his front office pro football career in 1960 as a scout with the Los Angeles Chargers. He moved on to the Dallas Texans (now the Kansas City Chiefs) where he helped turn the Chiefs into a Super Bowl winner. Klosterman then became general manager of the Houston Oilers in 1966. He moved on to Baltimore as general manager in 1970, then to Los Angeles when Rosenbloom traded his Colts for the Rams.

Klosterman and wife Luciana reside in Beverly Hills, Ca. He has two children, Kurt and Katie.

RAMS EXECUTIVES

JOHN SHAW
Vice President-Finance

John Shaw assumed the duty of vice president-finance this spring after serving the past year as the club's secretary/treasurer. Shaw joined the club in 1980 as controller/treasurer.

Before joining the Rams, Shaw spent three years with the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co.

A key member of the Rams organization, Shaw advises owner Georgia Frontiere on financial matters, including club investments, player contracts and legal affairs.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., on Sept. 10, 1951, Shaw attended Kearney High School in San Diego, Ca. He went to the University of San Diego where he earned a degree in accounting in 1973.

Shaw continued his education at New York University, and earned a law degree from that institution in 1976. He practiced law in Bakersfield, Ca., before joining Arthur Andersen & Co.

John and wife Suzanne live in Brentwood, Ca.

JACK FAULKNER
Administrator of Football Operations

Jack Faulkner joined the Rams' front office in 1980 after 30 years of coaching and scouting football, the previous nine years with the Rams. His duties include assisting in evaluation and signing of players, along with providing input for trades.

Faulkner, born April 4, 1926, in Youngstown, Ohio, was a linebacker at Miami, Ohio, from 1946-48 after a tour in the Marine Corps (1944-45).

He coached six years at the University of Cincinnati (1949-54) under Sid Gillman, then accompanied Gillman as defensive backfield coach when they joined the Rams in 1955.

When Gillman left the head coaching position of the Rams for a similar spot with the Los Angeles Chargers of the AFL, Faulkner went along. He also coached for Gillman with the San Diego Chargers in 1961 before going to Denver where he remained until midway in the 1964 season.

Faulkner was named AFL Coach of the Year in 1962 when he led the Denver Broncos to a 7-7 record in his first season as head coach and general manager after the team had gone 4-9-1 the previous year.

In 1965 he became defensive backfield coach of the Minnesota Vikings, returning to Los Angeles in 1966 as a scout. He left to join the expansion New Orleans Saints from 1967 through 1970, serving as chief defensive coach for three years and director of player personnel the final year.

Faulkner rejoined the Rams as a scout (1971-72), then joined the coaching staff where he remained through the 1979 season.

Jack and wife Betty have a daughter, Cathy, and a son, Jonn. They live in Palos Verdes, Ca.

LES MARSHALL
Director of Marketing

Although his title is director of marketing, Les Marshall is also involved in many other areas of the Rams operation as he acts as a liaison between Georgia Frontiere and other staff members.

Marshall joined the Rams in November, 1981, after a lengthy career with Playboy Enterprises, Inc. Marshall was employed by Playboy beginning in 1971 as Executive Assistant to the Chairman. From 1976 through 1978 he also served as President of Playboy Models and President of Playboy Limousine Co. From 1979 through 1981 he was Director of Home Video Playboy.

Born on Oct. 15, 1944, at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, Marshall attended Apple Valley (Ca.) High and Stanford University, graduating in 1966 with a degree in business. In 1976 he earned his master's degree in business administration from Pepperdine.

A former professional baseball pitcher in the Milwaukee farm system, Marshall served in Vietnam as infantry platoon leader and company commander from 1968 through 1970.

He and wife Janice live in Chatsworth, Ca.

DICK BEAM
Director of Operations

When Dick Beam agreed to accept the position of director of operations from President Georgia Frontiere, it marked a homecoming for the 44-year-old former star athlete from nearby Whittier.

Beam assumed his current duties in April, 1981, and most recently held a similar position — director of administration — with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Beam was born May 16, 1936, in Long Beach, Ca., and graduated in 1954 from Whittier (Ca.) High, where he was a varsity letter winner in football, basketball and baseball. As a senior split end, he made prep All-America and All-CIF. He then moved on to Whittier College where he played under George Allen and Don Coryell and was an all-league performer in 1958.

After graduating in 1959, Beam began a coaching career as an assistant to Coryell at Whittier before moving on as an assistant coach at Santa Fe High in 1960. He spent six seasons as an assistant at Montebello High (1961-66) before becoming head coach at Brea High in 1967 and Alhambra in 1968-71.

From there he was hired by John McKay as an assistant at USC in 1972, the year the Trojans won the national championship. He worked with the defense that season, then moved over to offense the next three years before joining McKay in Tampa Bay in 1976. At Tampa, Beam spent a year as administrative assistant to McKay, then became director of administration in 1977.

Several years ago Beam took up long distance running, and has since competed in several marathon races.

He and wife Dorothy have a son, Donn, and a daughter, Cathy. They live in Dana Point, Ca.

JOHN MATH
Director of Player Personnel

John Math was named Director of Player Personnel in June, 1980, and his duties include overseeing the annual college draft and player evaluation.

Math joined the Rams as a scout in March, 1977, and is known for his ability to foresee development in young athletes with a lot of potential.

Born Sept. 27, 1930, in San Gabriel, Ca., Math attended Alhambra High School before going on to the University of California at Berkeley. While at California from 1950-54, Math was a defensive back under "Pappy" Waldorf.

Math coached at Glendale (Ca.) College from 1960 to 1963, then coached at Utah State from 1964 to 1966. He broke into the National Football League the following season with the Houston Oilers, scouting college talent from 1967 to 1976. He then joined the Rams in 1977.

RAY MALAVASI
Head Coach

It was a disappointing year, 1981, but Rams Head Coach Ray Malavasi feels there is reason for optimism in 1982.

For one thing, it will be the first time in his four-year career as head man in Los Angeles that he has been able to hand pick his own coaching staff. Five assistants from last year's 6-10 team have departed and Malavasi has replaced them with football men who share his philosophies.

Also, Malavasi is hoping to field a healthier team in '82, particularly in the offensive line where injuries stymied his usually explosive attack last year.

Losing was a new experience for Malavasi. In his three previous years as Rams head coach his teams had averaged nearly 11 wins a season, going 12-4 his first year, 9-7 in 1979 and 11-5 in 1980. The 1979 Rams beat Dallas and Tampa Bay in the playoffs to win the first NFC title in the club's history and advance to the Super Bowl, where they gave Pittsburgh all it could handle before losing, 31-19.

Whether his team is having a good season or a bad season, Malavasi is known around the league as an innovative coach. While he spent most of his time the last three years working with the team's offense, he plans to work equally with the defense in 1982.

The is good news to those who like defensive football, for it was on defense that this man earned his reputation. As defensive coordinator under Chuck Knox for five years from 1973 through 1977, Malavasi guided the Rams to the defensive league leadership in several categories, including total defense, rushing defense (twice) and in scoring defense (twice).

However, Malavasi has spent nearly half of his 27 years designing offenses, so it was not surprising when he was named offensive coordinator at the beginning of the 1978 season.

Born Nov. 8, 1930, in Passaic, N.J., Malavasi attended Clifton High, then went on to West Point, where he studied engineering and was a lineman under Earl (Red) Blaik and Vince Lombardi.

Later he was drafted on the sixth round by the Philadelphia Eagles, but elected instead to finish his schooling at Mississippi State where he obtained a degree in civil and structural engineering and coached the freshman football team.

He was commissioned in the U.S. Army as a second lieutenant and went on active duty at Fort Belvoir, Va., where, as a player-coach, one of his football teams won a service championship.

Then he began an extensive collegiate coaching career, serving as an assistant at Minnesota (1956-57), Memphis State (1958-60) and Wake Forest (1961). He became personnel director of the Denver Broncos in 1962 and in 1963 became that club's defensive line coach.

In 1966, Malavasi was name the Broncos' interim head coach, replacing Mac Speedie, who had resigned two games into the season. Malavasi compiled a 4-8 record that year before moving on to the Canadian Football League where in 1967-68 he was defensive coach of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats. He handled the same job with the Buffalo Bills in 1969-70, then served as the Oakland Raiders' linebacker coach in 1971-72.

He became L.A.'s defensive coordinator in 1973.

Ray (Raymondo Guiseppi Giovanni Baptiste Malavasi) is married to the former Mary Fleming. They have five children: Maureen, Sheila, Dennis, Bill and Bryce.

Ray belongs to the St. Simon Judes Mens Club in Huntington Beach. He also served as chairman of the American Diabetes Association Celebrity Golf Classic and was active in fund raising for La Casa to benefit abused children. This summer he was named recipient of the coveted National Eagle Scout award.

JOHN HADL
Offensive Coordinator

John Hadl, a veteran of 16 seasons in pro football as a quarterback, returns to the NFL in 1982 as the Rams' offensive coordinator.

For the past four years, Hadl has served as offensive coordinator at the University of Kansas. In the 16 seasons before that, Hadl amassed some incredible passing statistics.

His career totals include being ranked No. 4 in pro history in pass attempts (4,687), No. 8 in pass completions (2,363), No. 4 in passing yards (33,513) and No. 4 in touchdown passes (244).

After 11 seasons (1962-72) with the San Diego Chargers and one AFL Championship, Hadl was traded to the Rams where he led the team to its first of seven consecutive NFC Western Division titles. He was named NFC Player of the Year.

In 1974, Hadl was traded to Green Bay and stayed with the Packers through the 1975 season. He was traded to Houston in 1976 and retired following the 1977 season.

Born Feb. 15, 1940, in Lawrence, Kan., Hadl attended Lawrence High and the University of Kansas. An All-America halfback in 1960 and an All-America quarterback in 1961, Hadl led the Jayhawks to their only bowl win ever, a 33-7 victory over Rice in the 1961 Bluebonnet Bowl.

He still holds Kansas records for longest punt (94 yards), longest interception return (98 yards) and most kickoff return yards in a game (153).

John and his wife Barbara life in Villa Park, Ca. They have two children: John, Jr. and Jackie.

CLYDE EVANS
Conditioning Coach

As the Rams' first full-time conditioning coach, Clyde Evans is in charge of developing individual programs for each player according to his body weight, structure and position he plays.

Evans develops the year-round programs for the players that include diet control, developing upper and lower body strength, plus speed, quickness and agility.

Born April 10, 1943, in Watsonville, Ca., Evans came to the Rams in 1978 from San Diego. He was in charge of weight lifting and stretching for the Chargers for four seasons — their first full-time employee for such a position.

A defensive back at Cabrillo Junior College in Aptos, Ca., in 1961-62, Evans played two years of semi-pro football. He was in the U.S. Army serving in Vietnam, and later attended San Diego State. He worked with the San Diego State football team with its conditioning in 1972-73, then joined the Chargers.

Single, Clyde lives in Fountain Valley, Ca.

PAUL LANHAM
Offensive Backfield Coach

Paul Lanham begins his fifth season with the Rams in his third different capacity. He joined the club in 1978 as special teams coach and became quarterbacks coach in 1980. This season Lanham will coach the running backs.

Before coming to the Rams, Lanham was the Washington special teams coach from 1973-77, and before that he spent one season with the St. Louis Cardinals as the special teams and offensive backfield coach.

Born July 31, 1930, in Ripley, W. Va., Lanham attended Morris Harvey College and transferred to Glenville (W. Va.) State. At Glenville, he lettered three years as a linebacker.

His college coaching career began in 1960 at the University of Delaware. While earning a master's in educational administration, Lanham coached the freshmen team's offensive line. He became the head freshmen coach at Dayton in 1961, then moved to Colorado State (1962-69) where he spent most of those years as offensive coordinator.

Lanham guided the special teams and tight ends at Arkansas in 1970-71, then came to the NFL the following season with St. Louis.

Paul and wife Helen have three children: Tammy, Steve and Randy. They live in Mission Viejo, Ca.

HERB PATERRA
Linebackers Coach

Herb Paterra begins his second season as the Rams' linebackers coach after spending his rookie season as an NFL coach with the Rams' special teams.

Prior to joining the Rams in 1980, Paterra spent two years as the defensive line and linebackers coach of the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

With 13 years of coaching experience, Paterra joins Ray Malavasi a second time, but this time as a coach. In 1967-68, Paterra was a player with Hamilton while Malavasi coached Hamilton's defense.

Born Nov. 8, 1940, in Grassport, Pa., Paterra was an offensive guard and linebacker at Michigan State in 1960-62. Drafted by the Buffalo Bills, Paterra played outside linebacker (1963-64) before moving to Hamilton.

He played at Hamilton for four years (1965-68), then returned to Michigan State to coach the linebackers and defensive line (1969-71). Paterra then coached at Wyoming (1972-74), Charlotte of the WFL (1975) and at a high school in Charlotte (1976-77).

He signed on briefly with Northern Michigan in 1978, but left almost immediately to take a job with Hamilton.

Herb and wife Lou Ann live in Diamond Bar, Ca., with sons Jeffrey and Craig.

JIM RINGO
Offensive Line Coach

Jim Ringo, one of the most honored offensive linemen in NFL history, joins the Rams' coaching staff in 1982 as offensive line coach.

Ringo joins the Rams after a four-year stint with the New England Patriots, the last three as offensive coordinator.

As a player, Ringo enjoyed 15 seasons and two NFL Championships. Ringo played center for Green Bay from 1953-63 as the Packers won the NFL title in 1961 and 1962. He finished his career with four seasons in Philadelphia. Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1981, Ringo played in 182 consecutive games and appeared in 10 Pro Bowls during his career.

Born Nov. 21, 1932, Orange, N.J., Ringo played his college ball at Syracuse and was a seventh-round draft pick of Green Bay in 1953. Upon retiring after the 1967 season, Ringo entered the coaching profession in 1969 with the Chicago Bears.

After three seasons in Chicago, Ringo was named offensive line coach of the Buffalo Bills. He served in that position until the middle of the 1976 season when he was named head coach, a position he held through the 1977 season.

Ringo joined the Patriots' staff the following season.

Jim and wife Betty live in Santa Ana, Ca. They have four children: Michelle, James, Anthony and Kurt.

FRITZ SHURMUR
Defensive Line Coach

Fritz Shurmur will coach the Rams' defensive line in 1982 after spending the past four seasons with the New England Patriots.

Shurmur coached the Patriots' defensive line in 1978 and 1979, then served as defensive coordinator his last two seasons there. In 1979, Shurmur's defensive line totaled 57 quarterback sacks, tops in the NFL.

Shurmur began his NFL coaching career with the Detroit Lions. He coached the Lions' defensive line in 1975 and 1976 and became defensive coordinator in 1977.

Born July 15, 1932, in Riverview, Mich., Shurmur attended Wyandotte (Mich.) High and Albion College. Ht: 6-3 Wt: 221 Born: 11/28/55 How Acq: D1a-79

PRO: George Andrews had a solid 1981 season as the Rams' right linebacker, starting 15 games. Andrews missed the Cleveland game with a bruised kidney. With the Rams using a nickel defense quite often in '81, Andrews' playing time was limited since he was replaced on passing situations. He was credited with ½ quarterback sack and is still looking for his first NFL interception going into 1982. Andrews missed the first three games of 1980 with a thigh injury but returned to start in Week No. 10 after Bob Brudzinski left camp. Andrews made a substantial contribution to L.A.'s defensive surge the last six weeks of the season as the Rams gave up only 75 points in that span (12.5 avg. per game). He finished the '80 season with 44 total tackles, including a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. Andrews was the Rams' No. 1 pick in 1979 (19th player selected overall) and appeared in all 16 regular season games, mostly on special teams.

COLLEGE: Andrews was named All-America at Nebraska by NEA, Football News, AP (second team) and UPI (second team) his senior year. He was also All-Big 8 and Academic All-America, graduating in his third year with a business degree.

Arnold's best game came in the Rams' 20-13 win over Detroit when he caught 4 passes for 48 yards. He played mostly special teams but did see considerable action at defensive end late in the season. Cobb will be battling for a backup position in 1982.

He was activated four weeks later and played seven games — mostly on special teams — before he injured his right knee. He spent the rest of the year on injured reserve after undergoing surgery. Nicknamed "Mickey," Collins was the Rams' second-round draft choice in 1981 and looks to have a bright future in the NFL.

PRO: Kirk Collins appeared in all 16 regular season games in 1981, mostly on special teams, and looks to be a strong contender for a roster position at cornerback in 1982. A seventh-round draft choice of the Rams in 1980, Collins suffered a shoulder injury and spent the season on injured reserve. The coaching staff is high on his quickness and his desire to work hard.

COLLEGE: After two years at Blinn (Brenham, Tex.) Junior College, Collins played two years at Baylor. He became a starter the final game of his junior season and had 5 career interceptions.

PERSONAL: Edward Kirk Collins was born in San Antonio, Tex., and attended Sam Houston High in that city where he competed in basketball and baseball. Corral, Frank K-P UCLA NFL Exp: 5
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 233 Born: 6/16/55 How Acq: D3a-78

PRO: While Frank Corral looks to have an even better year in 1982, that doesn't mean the NFL's only placekicker-punter had a disappointing year in 1981. Corral (pronounced Kore-al') converted 17 of 26 field goal attempts and 36 of 36 PAT attempts in '81, as well as punting 89 times without a block. His 87 points brings his career total to 379 points, No. 4 on the Rams' all-time scoring list and he has converted 87 straight PATs after missing his first attempt of 1980. His 42.0 punting average was the highest by a Ram since 1972, and it's even more remarkable since he had just 3 touchbacks and 19 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line. After kicking a career-long 67-yard punt against Chicago, Corral turned around two weeks later to kick a 25-yard FG with 24 seconds left to beat Atlanta, 37-35. A third-round draft choice of the Rams in 1978, Corral had a spectacular rookie season by leading the NFL In field goals (29), field goal attempts (43) and scoring (118). His placekicking talent proved the difference in three last-minute wins. He kicked a 46-yard FG with 7 seconds left to beat the Eagles, a 27-yard FG with 3 seconds left to beat the Buccaneers and a 24-yard FG with 2 seconds left to beat the 49ers. He was All-NFL according to PFWA, NEA, Pro Football Weekly, AP (second team) and Football Digest. He was named All-NFC by The Sporting News, UPI and Pro Football Weekly. In addition, Corral was selected to the Pro Bowl, was voted Rookie of the Year by Ye Old Rams and was recipient of Pro Football Weekly's Golden Toe Award, emblematic of the NFL's best placekicker. In 1979, he accounted for all of L.A.'s points in a 9-0 win in the NFC title game against Tampa by kicking three field goals. Also that season, Corral made 13 of 25 FGAs and 36 of 39 PATs, along with 5 of 7 field goals in the playoffs. In 1980, Corral assumed the duties of punter, but showed he still could kick the pressure field goal: his 23-yard FG in overtime beat Atlanta, 20-17.

COLLEGE: After two years at Riverside City College where he led the nation in punting (44.0 and 45.7), Corral went to UCLA where he continued as a punter-placekicker. He was All-Pac 8 (first team) as a punter and All-Pac 8 (second team) as a kicker his junior year, but missed most of his senior season because of a broken jaw. He holds the UCLA record for longest field goal: 55 yards.

PERSONAL: Born in Chihuahua, Mexico, John Frank Corral attended Norte Vista High in Riverside, Ca. He still lives in Riverside with wife Martha and daughters Christina (7/4/76) and Maria (4/7/80).

Going into the 1982 season, Frank Corral has kicked 87 consecutive PATs. His last miss was on his first attempt against Detroit on Sept. 7, 1980.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 Born: 1/30/55 How Acq: D2a-77

PRO: There doesn't seem to be anything Nolan Cromwell can't do on a football field. Regarded as probably the best athlete in the NFL, Cromwell was a consensus All-NFL free safety in 1981, the second straight year he's achieved such lofty status. With a club-high 5 interceptions in '81, Cromwell had a 94-yard interception return against Atlanta, the longest of his career. Along with being voted to his second straight Pro Bowl, Cromwell was named recipient of the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award, emblematic of the club's MVP as voted by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. He was named All-NFL by AP, PFWA, NEA, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest, plus received All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and UPI (second team). In 1980, he led the NFC with 8 interceptions, returned an interception 24 yards for a touchdown against the 49ers and ran for a PAT after a bad snap. He was named all NFL in '80 by AP, PFWA, NEA, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest. In, addition, he was named NFC Defensive Player of the Year by the Kansas City Committee of 101 and UPI, plus All-NFC honors from UPI and Pro Football Weekly. Ye Old Rams named him Outstanding Defensive Back. A second-round pick of the Rams in 1977, Cromwell has been the holder on placekicks ever since. He was a backup safety in '77, but did start in the "Mud Bowl" playoff game against Minnesota. In 1978, he still was a backup, but managed to score 2 touchdowns. He recovered a blocked punt in the end zone against Philadelphia and ran 16 yards for a TD on a fake field goal against Tampa Bay. Also, he blocked a punt that was returned for a TD against Chicago and ran 5 yards for a TD from field goal formation to give the Rams a 27-21 overtime win against Minnesota.

COLLEGE: Cromwell started all four years at Kansas — two at safety and two at quarterback. He was the Big 8 Player of the Year his junior season and set an NCAA record of 294 yards rushing in a game by a quarterback. He also ran the 400-meter hurdles (49.5) and competed in the decathlon with a best of 6,806.
PERSONAL: Nolan Neil Cromwell was born in Smith Center, Kan., and attended Ransom (Kan.) High where he competed in football, basketball and track. He and wife Ellen live in Lawrence, Kan. An avid outdoorsman and golfer, Nolan is involved with a charity golf tournament to benefit cystic fibrosis.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 183 Born: 11/28/55 How Acq: FA-78

PRO: Preston Dennard's strength lies in his ability to run precise pass patterns since he lacks blazing speed. His precision has paid off during his career, especially in 1981 when he led the Rams with 49 receptions for 821 yards (16.8 avg.) and 4 touchdowns. Dennard had back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in '81 against San Francisco and Detroit, totaling 119 yards on 6 receptions in each game. In that game against Detroit, Dennard had a 64-yard reception, the longest of his career. In 1980, he caught 36 passes for 596 yards and 6 touchdowns, and was voted Outstanding Receiver by Ye

Old Rams for the second straight year. Signed as a free agent before the 1978 training camp, Dennard (pronounced Den-nard') was waived and re-signed before Week No. 5. He saw his first action the next week and played mostly on special teams. In 1979, Dennard became a starter when injuries befell other receivers. He led the club that year with 43 receptions, had a personal best of 7 receptions in a game against the Giants and was voted Outstanding Receiver by Ye Old Rams.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at New Mexico, Dennard set school records in each receiving category and was named All-America (second team) his sophomore year. He was All-WAC for two seasons and lettered one year in basketball.

Doss, Reggie DE-DT Hampton Institute NFL Exp: 5
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 263 Born: 12/7/56 How Acq: D7-78

PRO: After spending his first three NFL seasons as a defensive end, Reggie Doss was moved to defensive tackle in 1981. Then, when Larry Brooks was sidelined with an injury, Doss took over the starting right defensive tackle position in Week No. 9 and ended the season with 2½ quarterback sacks, a club-high 3 forced fumbles, 3 passes defended and a fumble recovery. Whether he plays tackle or end in 1982, Doss is sure to give an all-out effort. A seventh-round draft pick of the Rams in 1978, Doss was only the fourth player ever drafted out of Hampton Institute. Primarily a special teams player his first three seasons, Doss was credited with 2 quarterback sacks and 2 forced fumbles in 1979. In 1980, he had 6½ quarterback sacks, 2 passes defensed and a fumble recovery.

COLLEGE: Doss was an NAIA All-America at Hampton Institute and was the team's MVP his senior year. During his collegiate career, Doss played tight end, linebacker and defensive tackle.

PERSONAL: Reginald Lee Doss was born in Mobile, Ala., and attended Sam Houston High in San Antonio, Tex., where he competed in football and baseball. Single, Reggie lives in Huntington Beach, Ca., and worked for Anaheim Land Corporation in the offseason.

Ekern, Carl LB San Jose State NFL Exp: 6
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 222 Born: 5/27/54 How Acq: D5a-76

PRO: Carl Ekern stepped into the starting middle linebacker position in 1981 and performed admirably, leading the team in tackles and assists. A dedicated team player, Ekern looks to quarterback the Rams' defense again in 1982. A fifth-round pick of the Rams' in 1976, Ekern primarily played on special teams in his first three seasons. However, he did earn a reputation as a hard hitter while playing on short-yardage situations. In 1977, for instance, Ekern made a tackle in the Rams' win over Green Bay that a Rams coach said "fans see once every 10 years." On a fourth-and-one situation near the Rams' goal line, Ekern moved at the snap of the ball, leaped over the line and met the runner square in mid-air. The result was no gain. Ekern missed the 1979 season after suffering a preseason knee injury that required surgery. He returned in 1980 as the backup middle linebacker and special teams player.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at San Jose State, Ekern was a three-time All-PCAA linebacker. He was named PCAA Player of the Year his senior season and played in the East-West Shrine Game.

PRO: Mike Fanning's consistent and dependable performances at left defensive tackle too often seem to be lost in obscurity. But if Fanning has the kind of season in 1982 as he did in 1981, he will not go unnoticed. Starting every game in '81, Fanning totaled 4½ quarterback sacks, 3 passes defensed and a fumble recovery. In 1980, while starting just three games, Fanning had a personal-high 10 quarterback sacks as the Rams led the NFC with 56. The first of three first-round picks by the Rams in 1975, Fanning suffered an ankle injury in the preseason and played eight regular season and two postseason games. In 1976, he played mostly on special teams but was credited with 4 quarterback sacks. Bothered by shoulder injuries in 1977, Fanning was a backup until he started the final two regular games of 1978. Fanning played the entire '78 playoff game against Minnesota, except for the first series, and started in the NFC title game against Dallas. Fanning became a starter in 1979 when Cody Jones was injured and he finished the season with 8 quarterback sacks.

COLLEGE: Fanning played both defensive tackle and defensive end at Notre Dame and was named All-America by The Sporting News, Walter Camp Foundation, Time magazine, NEA and AP (second team). Fanning also wrestled at Notre Dame, finishing second in the NCAA tournament.

PRO: Vince Ferragamo returns to the Rams in 1982 after a season in the Canadian Football League. Ferragamo, who ranks No. 7 on the Rams' all-time passing list, previously played for the Rams in 1980 when he quarterbacked the Rams to 6,006 total net yards, best in the NFC. In '80, Ferragamo (pronounced Fair-ah-gah'-mo) set club season records for pass completions (240), passing yards (3,199), touchdown passes (30) and completion percentage (59.4), and he tied a club record with 5 TD passes in the Rams' 45-31 win over New Orleans. He was named recipient of the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award, emblematic of the club's MVP as selected by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. A fourth-round pick of the Rams in 1977, Ferragamo saw limited action that year but did throw 2 touchdown passes in the season finale against Washington. He was a backup in 1978 and became the starter in Week No. 12 of 1979 after Pat Haden suffered a hand injury. Ferragamo contributed substantially to the Rams winning the NFC West title for the seventh straight year, an NFL record. In the '79 playoffs, Ferragamo threw TD passes of 32, 43 and 50 yards against Dallas, the last with just 2:06 left in the game, then completed 12 of 23 passes for 163 yards in the NFC title game against Tampa Bay. In Super Bowl XIV, he completed 15 of 25 passes for 212 yards with an interception.

COLLEGE: Ferragamo lettered two seasons at Nebraska after transferring from the University of California. After his senior season, he was named All-America by AP, UPI and Football News, along with being named Academic All-Big 8.

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 270 Born: 4/26/53 How Acq: D1c-75

PRO: Before the 1981 season began, Doug France underwent surgery to repair a torn rotator cuff in his right shoulder. His recovery was lengthy and he spent the season as a backup until he was called upon to start at left tackle in Week No. 8 against the 49ers. Ironically, France tore the rotator cuff in his left shoulder during the game and required surgery. Most recently he underwent surgery in April on his right knee. In 1980, France started all 16 games and was named All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly and All-NFC (second team) by UPI. Nicknamed "Bubba," France was the third of three first-round draft picks by the Rams in 1975. He started one game his rookie season and became a regular starter in 1976 when the Rams led the NFC in rushing. In 1977, France underwent preseason knee surgery but rebounded to have a fine season that ended with his being voted to his first Pro Bowl. In 1978, he again was voted to the Pro Bowl and was named All-NFL by AP and NEA (second team). In 1979, France was hampered by an elbow injury but still started 13 games. His efforts earned him the NFL Players Association award as the NFC's Best Offensive Lineman.

COLLEGE: A member of Ohio State's Big 10 champion in 1974, France played three seasons for the Buckeyes. A tight end his senior year, France was named second team All-America by NEA, honorable mention All-America by Time magazine and All-Big 10 by AP.

Also, he threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Preston Dennard in the Rams' 33-31 loss to San Francisco. A sixth-round draft pick of the Rams in 1980, Guman did not start a game but rushed for 410 yards and 4 touchdowns. He caught 14 passes that year and threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Dennard in L.A.'s 27-7 win over New Orleans. His best rushing performance that year occurred in Buffalo on a cold, wet day when he gained 87 yards on 18 carries (4.8 avg.) and scored a touchdown.

PRO: A solid fixture as the Rams' right guard, Dennis Harrah hopes to return to his Pro Bowl form in 1982 after being slowed by a thigh injury in 1981. Harrah started 13 games in '81 before injuring his thigh and missing the New York Giants game. In 1980, Harrah (pronounced Hair'-uh) had a slow start but finished with a flurry. After a contract dispute, he joined the club in Week No. 2 and was a backup until Doug Smith was injured in Week No. 8. Harrah contributed greatly as the Rams led the NFL with 2,799 rushing yards, and for his efforts, he was voted to his third straight Pro Bowl and was named All-NFC (second team) by UPI. The second of three first-round picks by the Rams in 1975, Harrah was a backup guard until becoming a starter in 1976. "Herk" (short for Hercules) missed half of the 1977 season with a knee injury that required surgery. In 1978, Harrah missed one game with an ankle injury but was voted to start in his first Pro Bowl and was accorded All-NFC honors by Pro Football Weekly and UPI. In 1979, Harrah suffered a fractured right fibula in Week No. 2 against Denver, but missed only three games. He was named All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly in addition to being voted to the Pro Bowl.

COLLEGE: The Sporting News and Time magazine named Harrah All-America and the AP voted him second team following his college career. He played in the Hula Bowl and Senior Bowl.

Also in '81, Hill set an NFL record of 60 kickoff returns in a season and currently holds club records for career kickoff returns (143), career kickoff return yards (2,853) and kickoff return yards in a season (1,170). A 12th-round draft pick of the Rams in 1979, Hill started four games and began returning kickoffs. His first NFL touchdown came on a 17-yard pass from Pat Haden in the Rams' 24-0 win over Seattle. Also, he had a 28-yard reception in Super Bowl XIV. In 1980, Hill led the club with a 21.9-yard average per reception as he caught 19 passes for 416 yards and 2 touchdowns. His 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on the season's opening kickoff against Detroit that year was the club's first kickoff return for a touchdown since 1976.

PRO: Kent Hill is looking to regain his all-pro form of 1980 after experiencing an uneventful season in 1981. Hill started 11 games in '81 at his left guard position after starting all 16 games in 1980. In '80, Hill used his impressive size and speed to help the Rams lead the NFL in rushing with 2,799 yards, plus he was voted to his first Pro Bowl and was named All-NFL by Pro Football Weekly and AP (second team). Also, he was named All-NFC by UPI and Pro Football Weekly. The second of two first-round picks by the Rams in 1979, Hill became the starting left guard in Week No. 8 because of injuries to other linemen. His consistent performance that year was evidenced by his being guilty of only one holding penalty and his strong showing earned him all-rookie honors from Football Digest. Ye Old Rams named him Outstanding Rookie and he received the inaugural Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, emblematic of the club's Rookie of the Year as voted by Orange County Sportswriters Assn. and the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn.

COLLEGE: An honorable mention All-America at Georgia Tech, Hill lettered three seasons. Hill graduated with a degree in industrial management and played in the Senior Bowl.

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 184 Born: 9/15/57 How Acq: D3b-80

PRO: LeRoy Irvin's 1981 season was so remarkable that in 1982 — just his third NFL season — he will probably become the most prolific punt returner in Rams history. He needs 23 punt returns and 24 yards to become the Rams' all-time leading punt returner. From setting NFL and club records to being the NFL's No. 1 punt returner, Irvin provided punt return fireworks nearly every week in '81. His first noteworthy accomplishment came against Chicago when he returned a punt 55 yards for a touchdown, the first by a Ram since Dick Bass did it in 1961. Two weeks later in Atlanta, Irvin was flawless as he had an NFL-record 207 punt return yards, plus had 2 touchdown returns (84 and 75 yards) to tie another NFL record. At San Francisco, his 127 punt return yards was the second highest single-game total in club history, trailing only his 207-yard performance. He led the NFL with 615 punt return yards and a 13.4 average. Almost ignored in '81 were his 3 interceptions and 21 passes defensed as he started seven games at left cornerback. He was named All-NFL punt returner by AP, PFWA, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly. Pro Football Weekly also named him All-NFC. A third-round draft pick of the Rams in 1980, Irvin returned punts and played backup cornerback that year. He started the final two regular season games and the playoff game at Dallas in '80, and made his first NFL interception in the Rams' 17-14 win over New England.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Kansas, Irvin had 10 career interceptions and had a career punt return average of 10.8 yards with 2 touchdowns. He was named All-Big 8 (second team) by AP and UPI his senior season.

PERSONAL: LeRoy Irvin, Jr., was born in Fort Dix, N.J., and attended Glenn Hills High in Augusta, Ga. LeRoy and wife Roxanne live in Fullerton, Ca., with sons LeRoy III (2/10/80) and Charles Julius (11/9/81). LeRoy is pursuing a degree in child development at Cal State Fullerton.

Johnson, Johnnie S Texas NFL Exp: 3
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 183 Born: 10/8/56 How Acq: D1-80

PRO: Although Johnnie Johnson did not make an interception in 1981, he still contributed greatly in other areas such as being the club leader in fumble recoveries (5), forced fumbles (3) and blocked kicks (2). His 4 quarterback sacks in '81 were further evidence of his speed and agility. The Rams' No. 1 pick in 1980, (15th player selected overall) Johnson stepped into the starting role immediately since the spot was vacated by the retirement of Dave Elmendorf. Johnson had a superb season that ended with his being a consensus all-rookie. He received honors from UPI, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest. In addition, he won the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, emblematic of the club's Rookie of the Year as voted by the Orange County Sportswriters Assn. and the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. Ye Old Rams named him Rookie of the Year, too. His first NFL interception came in Week No. 3 that year against Green Bay when he returned it 99 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return in club history. His 37 passes defensed and 4 fumble recoveries were team highs in '80.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Texas, Johnson had 13 career interceptions (returning one for a TD) and had an 8.8 punt return average with a TD. He was named All-America by AP, UPI, NEA, Football Coaches and Football Writers.

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 211 Born: 9/7/51 How Acq: T-Balt.-82

PRO: Bert Jones, one of the most prolific passers in the history of pro football, was acquired by the Rams on April 27 from the Baltimore Colts in exchange for a first- and second-round draft pick. Jones' career passer rating of 79.1 ranks him No. 8 on the all-time list and No. 2 on the active list behind Cincinnati's Ken Anderson (80.5). In his career, he's thrown 122 touchdowns compared to just 97 interceptions. In 1981, despite the Colts' 2-14 record, Jones passed for 3,094 yards, the third time in his career that he surpassed the 3,000-yard mark. At the same time, he completed 57.3 percent of his passes (244 of 426). The Colts' No. 1 pick in 1973 (second player selected overall), Jones suffered a shoulder separation in 1974, but returned in the season's final game to put on a passing exhibition in the Colts' 45-38 loss to the Jets. In that game, Jones set Colt records for pass attempts (53) and pass completions (36), plus set an NFL record of 17 consecutive pass completions. He led the Colts to the AFC Eastern Division title the next three seasons, passing for 3,104 yards in 1976. Along with being voted to the Pro Bowl in '76, Jones was named All-NFL by AP, NEA and PFWA, All-AFC by AP and UPI, AFC Offensive Player of the Year by Kansas City's Committee of 101 and MVP by the NFLPA. In 1977, he led the NFL with 224 pass completions, then was bothered by shoulder injuries in 1978 and 1979, playing just seven games in those two years. He returned in 1980 to complete 248 of 446 passes for 3,134 yards (all personal highs).

COLLEGE: A three-year letterman at LSU, Jones is the Tigers' all-time leading passer, completing 220 of 410 passes for 3,225 yards and 28 touchdowns. He holds 10 passing and scoring records as well as sharing another. In his senior season, Jones was a consensus All-America, All-SEC and College Player of the Year as selected by The Sporting News and Cleveland Touchdown Club. He played in the Orange Bowl, Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl and College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Bertram Hays Jones was born in Ruston, La., and attended Ruston High. His high school football coach, Hoss Garrett, also coached Bert's father, Dub, who played for the Cleveland Browns. Bert and wife Danni live in Ruston with children Molly (5/31/78), Tram (5/31/78) and Stephanie (4/21/80).

On Nov. 18, 1951, the Los Angeles Rams set an NFL record with 735 total net yards. In the same game, Norm Van Brocklin set an NFL record with 554 net yards passing.

Jones, Cody DE-DT San Jose State NFL Exp: 8
Ht: 6-5 Wt: 255 Born: 5/3/51 How Acq: D5-73

PRO: Cody Jones was moved to right defensive end in 1981 after spending his first six NFL seasons as a defensive tackle. He responded with 5½ quarterback sacks (second highest on the club) and knocked down 5 passes. Whether he plays defensive end or moves back to defensive tackle in 1982, Jones is sure to give an all-out effort. A fifth-round draft pick of the Rams in 1973, Jones spent that season on the ready reserve, then played 12 games in 1974. In 1975, Jones started six regular season and two playoff games because of injuries to other linemen. He returned to a backup role in 1976, then became a starter in 1977 after Merlin Olsen retired. His best day that year came against Tampa Bay when he made 6 tackles, 2½ quarterback sacks and knocked down 2 passes. Jones' 7½ quarterback sacks in 1978 was second on the club, and when Larry Brooks was unable to play in the Pro Bowl, Jones was selected to replace him. In the final preseason game of 1979, Jones ruptured an Achilles tendon and missed the season. He returned in 1980 to start 15 games at left tackle and had 4 QB sacks. Also, he knocked down 4 passes and had a forced fumble.

COLLEGE: Before transferring to San Jose State, Jones played at Trinidad (Colo.) State JC where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He also played basketball. Following his senior year he participated in the East-West Shrine Game.

Kemp suffered a back injury after Week No. 4 and went on injured reserve. He was activated before Week No. 14 and saw his only action in the season finale against Washington. Kemp completed 2 of 6 passes for 25 yards with an interception, and had 2 rushes for 9 yards.

COLLEGE: Kemp set Dartmouth career passing records for attempts (398) and completions (198), plus set season records for attempts (216), completions (117) and yards (1,470). In his career, Kemp threw 13 TD passes and 17 interceptions. He lettered one year in baseball and graduated with a degree in economics.

Meisner, Greg DE Pittsburgh NFL Exp: 2
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 253 Born: 4/23/59 How Acq: D3a-81

PRO: Shortly after becoming the Rams' third-round draft pick in 1981, Greg Meisner suffered head injuries in an off-the-field incident. He was placed on the reserve list with a non-football injury, and joined the team in Week No. 8. Nicknamed "Rocky," Meisner played on special teams in those nine games and did see action at defensive end. In addition, he was credited with a kickoff return for 17 yards against the Detroit Lions. The coaching staff believes Meisner has a solid future in the NFL.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Pitt, Meisner was named Academic All-America by UPI, honorable mention All-America by AP and All-East (second team) by AP. A defensive tackle at Pitt, Meisner became a starter in the middle of his freshman season.

Miller, Willie WR Colorado State NFL Exp: 7
Ht: 5-9 Wt: 173 Born: 4/26/48 How Acq: FA-77

PRO: Willie Miller started just one game in 1981 at wide receiver and ended the season with 10 receptions for 147 yards. While his '81 statistics don't compare to his 1980 statistics of 22 receptions for 358 yards (16.3 avg.) and club-high 8 touchdowns, Miller is a determined player who will strive to make a greater contribution in 1982. A 12th-round draft pick of Houston in 1975, Miller was traded almost immediately to Cleveland for a draft choice. As a backup wide receiver, Miller caught 7 passes and also threw a 26-yard TD pass against Minnesota. In 1976, he played six games before being released. He was signed by the Rams as a free agent in 1977 but missed that season because of a preseason elbow injury. In 1978, Miller had his best year ever, leading the Rams with 50 receptions for 767 yards (15.3 avg.) and 5 touchdowns. Also in '78, he had his best day ever with 6 catches for 105 yards against Tampa Bay.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Colorado State, Miller was named All-WAC after his senior season. His 148 career receptions for 2,735 yards (18.5 avg.) are school records. Also, he holds the school record for receiving yards in a game (230) and touchdowns in a game (3).

Moore, Jeff — WR — Tennessee — NFL Exp: 3
Ht: 6-1 — Wt: 188 — Born: 3/2/57 — How Acq: D3a-79

PRO: Jeff Moore will be battling for a wide receiver spot in 1982 after catching 7 passes for 105 yards (15.0 avg.) in 1981. Moore's most productive game came against Dallas when he caught 3 passes for 53 yards, including a 35-yarder. A third-round draft pick of the Rams in 1979, Moore spent that season on the injured reserve list with a hamstring injury. In 1980, he appeared in 14 games and totaled 10 catches for 168 yards and a touchdown. Moore's touchdown came on a 19-yard pass in the Rams' 45-31 win over New Orleans. His longest reception, a 37-yarder, came in the Rams' 48-26 win against San Francisco.

COLLEGE: Moore was a wide receiver for three of his four seasons at Tennessee, finishing with career totals of 46 catches for 799 yards (17.4 avg.) and 4 TDs. As a defensive back his sophomore season, Moore had 2 interceptions.

He was credited with a quarterback sack and a fumble recovery. Murphy, a third-round draft pick of the Rams in 1980, spent his rookie season as a backup defensive tackle. He played in all 16 regular season games on special teams.

PRO: Mel Owens arrived late to training camp in 1981 and never quite caught up with everyone else. Still, the Rams' No. 1 selection (9th player selected overall) played in all 16 regular season games on special teams. The coaching staff is very high on Owens' abilities and think the ex-Michigan athlete has a long NFL career ahead of him. He will be battling for an outside linebacker spot in 1982.

COLLEGE: Named honorable mention All-America by AP and NEA his senior season, Owens also received All-Big 10 honors from AP and UPI (second team). A four-year letterman, Owens started his last two years and played in three Rose Bowls and a Gator Bowl. He graduated with a degree in political science.

Pankey, Irv T Penn State NFL Exp: 3
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 267 Born: 2/15/58 How Acq: D2-80

PRO: Irv Pankey inherited the starting left tackle position in 1981 when Doug France was recovering from a shoulder injury. Pankey, who performed exceptionally well, started seven games before injuring his right knee against Dallas. He sat out three games before returning to action in Week No. 11 and returned to his starting spot the next week. Also in '81, Pankey had 1 kickoff return for 0 yards. Nicknamed "Spankey," he is regarded by the coaching staff to be a dominant force in the Rams' offensive line. A second-round draft pick of the Rams in 1980, Pankey played on special teams but did not start at right tackle in Week No. 7 against San Francisco when Jackie Slater was injured.

COLLEGE: Pankey went to Penn State as a linebacker, played tight end as a junior (10 catches for 105 yards) and moved to offensive tackle his senior year. He was named second team All-America by NEA, and All-East by AP and the New York Times. He played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Japan Bowl.

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 215 Born: 6/15/58 How Acq: D12-81

PRO: Although he was the Rams' final draft pick in 1981, Jairo Penaranda proved to be a valuable special team player. His dedication and drive, combined with his ability, earned him the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, emblematic of the club's Rookie of the Year as voted by the Orange County Sportswriters Assn. and the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. While he didn't carry the ball in '81, Penaranda will be battling for a backup fullback spot in 1982.

COLLEGE: After two years at Valley College, Penaranda was a walk-on at UCLA and played two seasons. Primarily a blocking back, Penaranda gained 267 yards on 59 carries his senior season.

PERSONAL: Jairo Alonso Penaranda was born in Barranquilla, Colombia, and attended Burroughs High in Burbank, Ca., where he competed in football and track. As a youngster in Colombia, Penaranda's hobby was breaking llamas. He is single and lives in Burbank.

Perry, Rod CB Colorado NFL Exp: 8
Ht: 5-9 Wt: 185 Born: 9/11/53 How Acq: D4-75

PRO: Despite having an outstanding 1981 season that included 3 interceptions and a club-high 25 passes defensed, Rod Perry was overlooked when it came to postseason honors. The cat-quick cornerback has 25 career interceptions to rank No. 5 on the Rams' all-time list and looks to have another solid season in 1982. In 1980, Perry was second on the club with 5 interceptions, including an 83-yard TD return against Green Bay. Perry was voted to the Pro Bowl at season's end and was named All-NFC (second team) by UPI. A fourth-round draft pick of the Rams in 1975, Perry underwent knee surgery before the season began and was activated after Week No. 5. In 1976, he became a starter and had 8 interceptions — third best in the NFL — as the Rams led the NFL with 32 thefts. In 1977, he fractured his left thumb in the season opener, underwent surgery and played sparingly in five games. In 1978, Perry intercepted 8 passes (tied for the club high) and returned three for touchdowns, just one shy of the NFL season record. He was named to his first Pro Bowl in '78, along with being named All-NFC by The Sporting News and UPI (second team).

COLLEGE: Perry played two years at Colorado after spending his freshman and sophomore seasons at Fresno (Ca.) City College where he was a JC All-America. Perry has long-jumped 24-6.

Rutledge, Jeff QB Alabama NFL Exp: 4

PRO: Jeff Rutledge was called upon to perform in four tough situations in 1981, and the young quarterback responded each time until a dislocated right thumb suffered against Detroit forced him to undergo surgery. Rutledge's first appearance of '81 came in the opener when he drove the club to a tying field goal with less than two minutes left, then watched the Oilers return the ensuing kickoff for a score. Against Green Bay, Rutledge replaced an injured Pat Haden and completed 5 of 10 passes for 70 yards, including a 30-yard TD pass to Drew Hill, as L.A. won, 35-23. In Atlanta, Rutledge came in again for the injured Haden and five plays later threw a 1-yard TD pass to Henry Childs. Later he connected with Hill for a 36-yard TD and then drove the Rams 72 yards (completing 5 of 9 for 54 yards) in the final minute to set up the winning field goal. Rutledge completed 9 of 12 for 145 yards coming off the bench against Detroit, then injured his thumb when he threw a pass and hit a defensive lineman's helmet. A ninth-round draft pick of the Rams in 1979, Rutledge started against Chicago that year and threw his first NFL touchdown pass to Terry Nelson, an 18-yarder. In 1980, he played in one game before being placed on the injured reserve list after Week No. 7 because of mononucleosis.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Alabama, Rutledge was All-SEC his last two years and graduated with a degree in business education. While playing for the Crimson Tide, Rutledge broke Joe Namath's school record by throwing 30 career TD passes. He played in three Sugar Bowls and one Liberty Bowl, as well as appearing in the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Ronald Rutledge was born and raised in Birmingham, Ala., where he played football, baseball and basketball at Banks High in that city. His father, Jack, played for the Chicago Cubs, and Jeff was drafted by the Cubs out of high school but pursued football instead. Jeff and wife Laura live in Huntington Beach, Ca., with son Jeffrey Brooks (8/17/79) and daughter Christen Leigh (1/16/81).

Slater, Jackie T Jackson State NFL Exp: 7
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 271 Born: 5/27/54 How Acq: D3-76

PRO: A hamstring injury slowed Jackie Slater in 1981, but the Rams' right tackle hopes for a healthy and productive season in 1982. In '81, Slater started the first eight games at right tackle, then moved to left tackle when Doug France and Irv Pankey were injured. Slater injured his hamstring against Cincinnati and did not play the rest of the season. In 1980, Slater started 15 games at right tackle and showed that his ability was on par with the rest of the Ram linemen. Ram passers were sacked only 29 times in '80 and the offensive line led the way as the Rams gained 6,006 total yards, highest in the NFC. A third-round draft choice of the Rams in 1976, Slater played backup guard and tackle. In 1977, he started at left tackle in the season opener when Doug France was injured. Slater was a backup tackle in 1978, appearing mostly on special teams, and became a starter in 1979 when the Rams went all the way to the Super Bowl. Slater was one of only two offensive linemen that year (the other was Rich Saul) who started all 16 regular season and three postseason games.

COLLEGE: Following his senior season, Jackie was named All-America by the Pittsburgh Courier and played in the College All-Star Game. He also lettered in track and was the first recipient of the Walter Payton Physical Education Award.

Smith, Doug C-G Bowling Green NFL Exp: 5

PRO: Doug Smith may be the only NFL offensive lineman with the distinction of having started a game at four different positions. During his previous four NFL seasons, Smith has started at least one game at left guard, center, right guard and right tackle. In 1981 alone, he started the last 13 games — five at left guard and eight at right tackle — when injuries befell other linemen. Smith has been groomed to take over the center spot once Rich Saul retired, but circumstances have required his presence elsewhere on the offensive line. Now with Saul retired, Smith is expected to settle into the center spot. Signed as a free agent in 1978, Smith played mostly on special teams but started at right guard in Week No. 9 against Atlanta and started at center in Week No. 14 against the Giants. Also in '78, Smith returned a kickoff 8 yards against Pittsburgh. In 1979, Smith injured his left knee in Week No. 4 against Tampa Bay and required surgery. Ironically, he started that game at right guard for injured Dennis Harrah. In 1980, Smith began the season as the starting right guard but in Week No. 8 against Atlanta, he again injured his left knee and underwent surgery.

COLLEGE: Doug lettered four years at Bowling Green and was named All-MAC his senior season at guard. He graduated with a B.S. in education.

PERSONAL: Carl Douglas Smith was born in Columbus, Ohio, and attended Northland High in that city where he competed in football, basketball and track. Doug and wife Debbie live in Laguna Hills, Ca. In the offseason, Doug attended Cal State Fullerton where he is pursuing a master's degree in exercise physiology.

Smith, Lucious CB Cal State Fullerton NFL Exp: 3
Ht: 5-10 Wt: 190 Born: 1/17/57 How Acq: FA-80

PRO: Primarily a special teams player in 1981, cornerback Lucious Smith saw enough action in the defensive backfield to be credited with 12 passes defensed. Credited with a fumble recovery in '81, the hard-working Smith will be battling for a starting spot in 1982. Signed as a free agent in 1980, Smith made quite an impact before a national T. V. audience in the Rams' 27-7 Monday night win over New Orleans. The special teams speedster was a demon on punt coverage three different times. Smith tackled the punt returner for no gain the first time and made the tackle after a 2-yard return the second time. The third time was the charm as Smith hit the returner almost immediately, forced a fumble and recovered the ball on the 1-yard line to set up an L.A. touchdown. He saw some action in the defensive backfield during his rookie season when the Rams were in a pass prevent situation. His first NFL interception came in the playoff loss to Dallas.

COLLEGE: After a year at San Diego State, Smith sat out a year before playing two seasons at Cal State Fullerton.

PERSONAL: Lucious Irvin Smith was born in Columbus, Ga., and attended Kearny High in San Diego, Ca. Lucious and wife Kathy live in Fullerton, Ca., with daughters Miranda (1/4/75) and Milissa (5/29/81).

Playoff statistics: 1 interception for 7 yards.

Games Played, Started: 1980(16,0), 1981(16,0).

Sully, Ivory S Delaware NFL Exp: 4
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 201 Born: 6/20/57 How Acq: FA-79

PRO: Although Ivory Sully has yet to start an NFL game, his performance as a backup safety has been above reproach. A very inspirational player, Sully saw action in 1981 on the Rams' special teams and as the nickel defensive back. He was credited with 2 quarterback sacks, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. And while Sully is still looking for his first NFL interception, he has returned 7 kickoffs for 67 yards (9.6 avg.) during his career. Sully was signed as a free agent before the 1979 training camp, was waived, then re-signed after Week No. 7. He played on special teams against the Chargers and Giants, was waived again and was re-signed after Week No. 10. He appeared in the three remaining regular season games and all three playoff games. Also in '79, Sully blocked a punt that was returned for a touchdown in the Rams' 27-21 overtime win against Minnesota. He experienced a similar fate in 1980 when he blocked a punt against Miami that was recovered for a touchdown. Sully led the Rams in '80 with 3 forced fumbles and also was credited with 2 fumble recoveries.

COLLEGE: A three-year letterman at Delaware, Sully was a running back on the 1978 team that lost the NCAA Division II title game, 10-9. He averaged 6.1 yards per carry his senior season and graduated with a physical education degree.

PERSONAL: Ivory Ulysses Sully was born in Salisbury, Md., and attended Leonia (N.J.) High where he competed in football, track and tennis. Ivory is single and lives in Fullerton, Ca.

Games Played, Started: 1979(8,0), 1980(16,0), 1981(16,0).

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 228 Born: 9/10/57 How Acq: D3a-80

PRO: Jewerl Thomas didn't experience the same kind of success in 1981 as he did in 1980, but the young running back hopes to demonstrate his explosive talents in 1982. Thomas started one game against New Orleans and gained 75 yards on 11 carries with a long run of 40 yards. He finished the '81 season with 34 carries for 118 yards (3.5 avg.) and 5 receptions for 37 yards (7.4 avg.). A third-round draft pick of the Rams in 1980, Thomas burst upon the scene in his first start by rushing for 147 yards against Dallas in Week No. 15. Thomas was the Rams' fifth starting halfback in '80 and he didn't disappoint anyone, especially when he started again the next week against Atlanta and rushed for 144 yards. His season total of 65 carries for 427 yards (6.6 avg.) and 2 TDs was impressive for a rookie, as were his long runs of 61 (vs. Dallas), 56 (vs. Tampa Bay) and 40 yards (vs. Atlanta).

COLLEGE: After a year at UCLA, Thomas transferred to San Jose State where he played for two seasons. An All-PCAA halfback his senior year, Thomas rushed 322 times for 1,469 yards (4.6 avg.) and 12 TDs in his career. He played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl, where he rushed 12 times for 44 yards and 1 TD and caught 6 passes for 69 yards and 2 TDs.

PERSONAL: Jewerl Thomas, Jr., was born in Hanford, Ca., and attended Hanford High where he competed in football, wrestling and track. Jewerl and

Thomas, Pat CB Texas A&M NFL Exp: 7
Ht: 5-9 Wt: 190 Born: 9/1/54 How Acq: D2a-76

PRO: Hampered by hamstring and knee injuries in 1981, cornerback Pat Thomas was slowed somewhat and started just nine of the 12 games he played. Still, he grabbed 4 interceptions, including a career-long 64-yard return against Green Bay. His career interception total of 23 ties him for No. 6 on the club's all-time list. By contrast, Thomas' 1980 season was exceptional as he was named All-NFL by AP, All-NFC by UPI and Pro Football Weekly and was voted to his second Pro Bowl. His reputation as a punishing tackler and a smart defender did not go unnoticed even after he suffered an ankle injury in Week No. 14 against Buffalo and missed the final two regular season games. A second-round draft pick in 1976, Thomas saw duty mostly on special teams. In 1977, he became a starter when Rod Perry got hurt and finished with 5 interceptions. His first 2 interceptions came in a Monday night win over Minnesota with both thefts setting up touchdowns. In 1978, he had 8 interceptions, returning one for a 33-yard touchdown against the New York Giants. He blocked a punt and field goal attempt in '78 and was voted to his first Pro Bowl. Also, he was voted All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly, UPI and NEA (second team) and was named Outstanding Defensive Back by Ye Old Rams. In 1979, Thomas had no sooner tied a club record with 3 interceptions in a game at New Orleans before he suffered a calf injury the next week at Dallas and missed eight games. He returned in the final week and played in all three playoff games.

COLLEGE: Pat Thomas won All-America honors from AP, UPI, NEA and the American Football Coaches his senior year at Texas A&M. He intercepted 13 passes to break Dave Elmendorf's school record and the four-year letterman appeared in the Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl.

PERSONAL: Patrick Shane Thomas was born in Plano, Tex., and attended Plano High where he competed in football and track. He and wife Lenith live in Plano with children Patrick, Jr. (11/13/76), Tamara Nicole (3/31/79) and Joshua Dominique (7/19/82). Pat is a vice president of America's In Touch Club, a communications services company.

Tyler, Wendell HB UCLA NFL Exp: 5
Ht: 5-10 Wt: 198 Born: 5/20/55 How Acq: D3b-77

PRO: Running behind an offensive line plagued by injuries in 1981, halfback Wendell Tyler still sparkled as he became the Rams' ninth 1,000-yard rusher. His 1,074 yards and two 100-yard rushing games may have been overshadowed only by the fact that he scored 17 touchdowns, tying the club record set in 1951 by Elroy "Crazylegs" Hirsch. Tyler rushed for 12 TDs and caught 5 TD passes as he led the NFC in scoring (non-kickers) with 102 points. Also, Tyler now ranks No. 9 on the Rams' all-time rushing list with 2,702 yards. After suffering a dislocated hip in an auto accident on July 4, 1980, Tyler came back in Week No. 8 and saw his first action the next week against New Orleans. The man with stop-and-go moves gained 88 yards in a first-half performance against the Saints a few weeks later, but against the Jets the next week, Tyler suffered a hyper-extended left elbow and missed the rest of the season. In 1979, Tyler had his best year ever, gaining 1,109 yards rushing and leading the NFL with a 5.1 average per attempt. He had four 100-yard games in '79 even though he did not become a starter until Week No. 5. In the '79 playoffs, Tyler contributed to the Rams' 21-19 win over Dallas with a 32-yard TD catch and a 35-yard run. He gained 86 yards on the ground in the NFC title game, and in Super Bowl XIV, he carried 17 times for 60 yards including a 39-yard run that set up an L.A. touchdown. In addition, he was named the club's Outstanding Offensive Back by Ye Old Rams. A third-round pick out of UCLA in 1977, Tyler saw only backup duty. His season was highlighted by a 102-yard performance on 8 carries in a 35-3 Monday night win over Minnesota. In 1978, Tyler suffered a knee injury in the second game and missed the rest of the season, so the '79 campaign was officially his second.

COLLEGE: Tyler's four-year Bruin career saw him gain 3,181 yards and be named an AP All-America and All-Pac 8. He gained 172 yards in UCLA's 23-10 win over Ohio State in the 1976 Rose Bowl, including a 57-yard TD run. He also played in the East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Wendell Avery Tyler was born in Shreveport, La., and attended Crenshaw High in Los Angeles. He and wife Carmen live in West Covina, Ca., with daughter Candace (12/24/78) and Wendell Avery, Jr. (12/14/81).

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 190 Born: 2/19/54 How Acq: D2b-77

PRO: Billy Waddy, enjoyed his second-most productive season in 1981 and looks to have an even better year in 1982. Waddy had 31 receptions for 460 yards (14.6 avg.) while missing just one game because of a hamstring injury. He equaled his personal high of 6 catches in a game against Cincinnati. Nicknamed "Billy Quick," the speedy wide receiver had his best year in 1980 when he had 38 receptions for a club-high 670 yards (17.6 avg.) and 5 touchdowns. Waddy missed one game in '80 because he lost some teeth returning a punt against St. Louis, but he rebounded a few weeks later with 6 catches against the Jets and set a personal mark of 124 yards in receptions against Dallas. Known as a game breaker, Waddy did just that in 1979. He started six of the 13 games he played (he missed three games with a hamstring injury) in '79 and started all three playoff games. He caught 3 passes for 97 yards in the playoff win over Dallas; including a 50-yard TD with 2:06 left to win the game. In Super Bowl XIV, he caught 3 passes for 75 yards, including a 50-yarder that set up a TD. A second-round pick in 1977, Waddy returned punts and became a starter in Week No. 4. He caught 23 passes that season and had a 7.1 punt return average. He started the first two games of 1978 before suffering a rib injury that put him out for five weeks. While he didn't start the rest of '78, Waddy caught a 68-yard TD pass against Tampa Bay that was the club's longest of the year.

COLLEGE: Waddy lettered four years at Colorado: two at running back, one at wing back and one at wide receiver. He broke Cliff Branch's record by returning 22 kickoffs for 566 yards his senior year.

PERSONAL: Billy Dean Waddy was born in Wharton, Tex., and attended Boling (Tex.) High where he competed in football, track and baseball. Billy is single and lives in San Diego, Ca.

Youngblood, Jack DE Florida NFL Exp: 12
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 242 Born: 1/26/50 How Acq: D1b-71

PRO: Jack Youngblood possesses the rare qualities that make up a great football player: respected leadership, durability and outstanding performance. After undergoing surgery prior to the 1981 season to remove a blood clot in his left arm, Youngblood turned in a very solid season at left end that saw him lead the Rams with 11 quarterback sacks. In addition, he extended his consecutive game streak to 162, No. 4 on the club's all time list. Youngblood had 11 quarterback sacks in 1980 (club high) as the Rams led the NFC with 56. The team co-captain was named All-NFC by UPI in '80 and was voted Outstanding Defensive Lineman by Ye Old Rams for the sixth time. In 1979, Youngblood had his highest quarterback sack total with 16. However, his greatest influence on the Rams in '79 came after he fractured his left fibula in the second quarter of L.A.'s 21-19 playoff win over Dallas. Since the injury was to a non-weight bearing bone and could not be injured further, Youngblood was fitted with a plastic brace and went all the way in the NFC title game and Super Bowl XIV. His courage and performance did not go unnoticed as he was named All-NFL by AP, NEA and PFWA, and All-NFC by UPI, Pro Football Weekly and The Sporting News. He played in his seventh straight Pro Bowl after the '79 season and received — for an unprecedented third time —the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award, emblematic of the club's MVP as voted by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. Ye Old Rams named him the club's MVP for the third time. The Rams' second of two first-round picks in 1971, Youngblood played mostly on special teams before splitting playing time in 1972 with Fred Dryer. When Dryer moved to the right side in 1973, Youngblood became a full-time starter and was voted to his first of seven straight Pro Bowls. In 1975 and 1976, Youngblood was named NFC Defensive Player of the Year by Kansas City's Committee of 101. Having won numerous All-NFL and All-NFC honors in his career, Youngblood had one of his finest days in the '75 playoff win over St. Louis. He sacked the Cardinal quarterback once, forced a fumble, blocked a PAT attempt and returned a pass interception 47 yards for a touchdown.

COLLEGE: A three-year letterman at Florida, Youngblood was named All-America his senior season by The Sporting News, Football Writers Association and AP (second team). He was the Most Valuable Defensive Lineman in the SEC that year and played in the College All-Star Game and Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Herbert Jackson Youngblood III was born in Jacksonville, Fla., and attended Jefferson County High in Monticello, Fla. Jack and wife Diane live in Orange, Ca., where Jack and Larry Brooks own and operate a western clothing store called Wild Bunch. Jack also owns a ranch in Monticello, the South Coast Club in Huntington Beach, Ca., and is quite an outdoorsman. His black labrador, "Jet," is a constant companion.

Playoff statistics: 1 interception for 47 yards and 1 touchdown.

Games Played, Started: 1971(14,3), 1972(14,7), 1973(14,14), 1974(14,14), 1975(14,14), 1976(14,14), 1977(14,14), 1978(16,16), 1979(16,16), 1980(16,16), 1981(16,16).

Youngblood, Jim LB Tennessee Tech NFL Exp: 10
Ht: 6-3 Wt: 231 Born: 2/23/50 How Acq: D2c-73

PRO: Look for Jim Youngblood to be roaming the playing field again in 1982. The Rams' Man of the Year started all 16 games at left linebacker in 1981 and was credited with an interception and 3 quarterback sacks. Youngblood's 1980 season was highlighted by his fourth career touchdown by interception return. It happened in the Rams' 48-26 win over the 49ers as Youngblood returned it 33 yards. He missed one game in '80 because of an elbow injury and ended the season with 3 QB sacks. In 1979, Youngblood showed he could be more than a ferocious tackler as he intercepted 5 passes (tied for the club lead). Two of those went for touchdowns; a 31-yarder against Tampa Bay and a 34-yarder against Atlanta. Also, he had an interception in the NFC title game. He was named All-NFL (second team) by AP, Outstanding Defensive Back by Ye Old Rams and was voted to his first Pro Bowl after the '79 season. A second-round draft pick of the Rams in 1973, Youngblood primarily was a special teams player his first three seasons. In 1976, he moved from backup middle linebacker to a starting spot outside in Week No. 4. In 1977, he started all 14 games — eight as middle linebacker and six at left linebacker. In 1978, Youngblood was named recipient of the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award, emblematic of the club's MVP as voted by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. He also was voted the club's co-MVP by Ye Old Rams that year and was named All-NFC by UPI. He also had 5½ quarterback sacks and recovered 4 fumbles in '78.

COLLEGE: Youngblood was named Little All-America by the Football Coaches Association and AP as well as the Ohio Valley Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in both 1971 and 1972. Following his senior season he played in the Hula Bowl and College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Jimmy Lee Youngblood was born in Union, S.C., and attended Jonesville (S.C.) High. He and wife Mary live in Fountain Valley, Ca., with daughters Tara (1/3/71) and Marcia (5/21/74). Jim sponsors an annual charity golf tournament for the March of Dimes.

Alexander underwent surgery after suffering a knee injury in the 1981 preseason and spent the year on injured reserve. # THE RAMS STORY: 1937-1981

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach and Lewis remains as assistant. Rams hit .500 mark for first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback. Hall is not named on official NFL all-league first team, but wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire, as general manager, Billy Evans, former sports columnist, American League umpire and Cleveland Indians general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach, with George Trafton and Bob Snyder as assistants. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season.

Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Team wins first six games, then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year.

1950 NFL absorbs AAC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to L.A.

1952 After team loses three straight presason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum by one-sided score.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners sign five-year operational pact and name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit.

1962 Harland Svare replaces Don Paul as defensive line coach. Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937 dies in September. Rams practice in new facilities in Long Beach. Team finishes 8-6.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Rams record first upbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay in Western Conference Championship Game.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins its first 11 games to win Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro, successful head coach at UCLA, replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. Klosterman assumes title of Executive Vice President and General Manager. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training camp site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year," Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record, then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Klosterman is named to replace Steve Rosenbloom in charge of day-to-day operations. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards.
